IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT DISTRICT FOR THE DISTRICT OF UTAH, CENTRAL DIVISION

RUSSELL G. GREER,

Plaintiff

v.

JOSHUA MOON, publisher of the website
Kiwi Farms, and KIWI FARMS, a website

Defendants

PLAINTIFF'S MOTION REQUESTING
ORAL ARGUMENT ON HIS MOTION FOR PRELIMINARY INJUNCTION AND ON DEFENDANTS' MOTION TO DISMISS

Case No.: 2:20-cv-00647

Judge Tena Campbell
Magistrate Judge Jared C. Bennett

Pursuant to local rule DUCivR 7-1(f), Plaintiff respectfully moves the Court to allow oral argument on Defendants' Motion to Dismiss Plaintiff's Complaint and on Plaintiff's Motion for Preliminary Injunction.

Plaintiff's Complaint contains several important decisions that faces this Court, such as whether a preliminary injunction should be issued and if the Court should issue a declaration concerning the Communications Decency Act (CDA), Section 230. As stated in the Complaint and as brought up by Defendants, said law shields Defendants from the defamation, false light and harassment claims. Motions and replies have been filed by both parties, but the issues still remain very important to discuss. Such specific issues that face this Court are: (1) was the CDA intended to protect sites like Defendants and should the CDA continue to protect such sites? (2) should a preliminary injunction be granted? And if so, to what extent should the injunction cover?

Oral argument on the Motion to Dismiss and on the Motion for Preliminary Injunction would assist the Court in assessing the merits of Plaintiff's and Defendants' arguments on both motions and would ensure that the Court has all the necessary information before it to rule on both motions.

Plaintiff requests that each side be permitted 15 to 30 minutes to present their oral arguments. Plaintiff also requests that the hearing be in-person. But realizing COVID precautions are still in effect, he is also fine with a Zoom and/or telephone conference.
